Snips and Cuts

Entrance to Central

NINETEEN FORTY TWO

Snips and Cuts

Volume Thirty-three . . . Published by the 1942
Senior Class of Central High School, Charlotte,
North Carolina . . . Bill de Roxlo, Editor-in-Chief;
Ernest Hunter, Business Manager.

IN THIS BOOK...

THIS, the thirty-third volume of the SNIPS AND CUTS, has been separated into four divisions . . . PRINCIPALS . . . portraying the faculty . . . the student administration . . . and the outgoing Senior Class. INTERESTS . . . displaying the lighter and more joyous parts of our school life. ATHLETICS . . . presenting the results of our attempts toward physical development. ASPIRANTS . . . including those of us who are continually striving to achieve positions of responsibility in our school life.

PREFACE

BETWEEN the covers of this, the Nineteen Forty-two SNIPS AND CUTS, we, the staff, have tried to summarize the time spent at Central. We have met with many difficulties, most of which we hope have been surmounted. This book was made possible by your presence, activity, and support; so it is to be hoped that in some way we have recorded everything that made school life pleasant for you. If in the years to come, you relive your classes, your associations with the faculty, your football games, your dances, or any of your other activities, we shall have received more than sufficient reward.

Bill de Royle

Ernest Hunter.

DEDICATION

In recognition of her earnest attempts to bring the Spanish Language closer to us; and in appreciation for taking the thankless and unwanted job of adviser to the SNIPS AND CUTS for the last three years; we, the Senior Class of '42, dedicate our Annual to MISS MARTHA AKERS.

The Operations Committee, one of the most active organizations in the school, is composed of 25 efficient and enthusiastic members under the capable leadership and guidance of Chairman Hoyle Wilson and advisers Mrs. Asbury and Dr. Garinger. This Committee operates the noon movies; the proceeds from which are divided equally between the Student Assembly and the Visual Aids Committee. This money is used by the Visual Aids in renting films for use in the classrooms and for the maintenance and purchase of new equipment and by the Student Assembly in meeting their necessary expenses. This year the Operations Committee has established a fund to provide for the replacement of old and worn-out machines. The Committee also supplies the public address system for extra-curricular activities; including speeches, dances, assembly programs, and advertising school projects. Even though the Committee comes under the new government tax ruling, it has made a splendid record for the year. Thus, this Committee plays an important role in our school life.

DANCE COMMITTEE

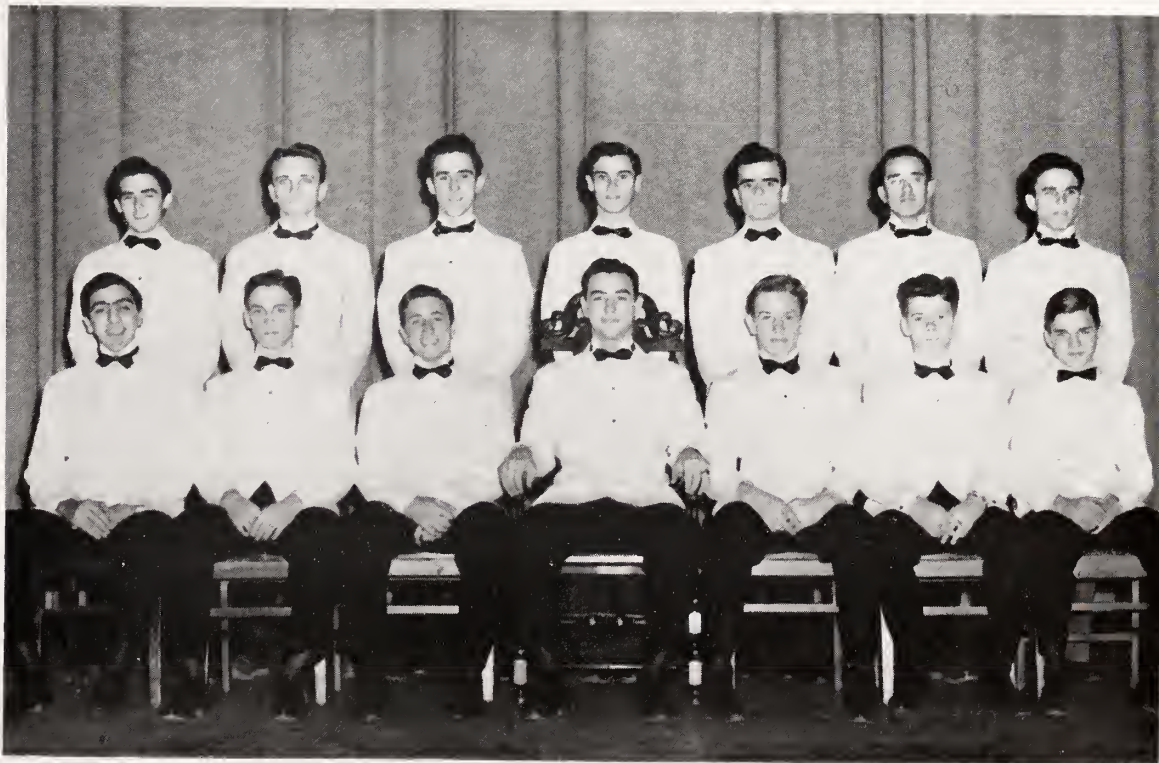

First row: Gus Karres, Bobby Graham, Joe Kumpe, Wayman Leftwich, Jack Beall, Bob Kirby, Bill Wilcox.

Second row: Haywood Weeks, Ben Ivey, Jimmy Fowler, Tommy Stroupe, Bill Scruggs, Marion Hipp, L. A. Waggoner.

The Dance Committee during the year 1941-42 sponsored six school dances. The dances were started rather late with a "Rainbow Scrip" December 12, on a brand new gym floor. A patriotic "Victory Hop" followed with something new in decorations. At mid-term on February 13 came the Valentine invitational with the traditional red and white which was one of the best of the year. Next came a "Spring Court Dance" with the queen and her court reigning for a night. The April dance was fun—good music and all of Central's dancing crowd. Last came the dance of the year. The dance at which the seniors said good-bye and the juniors looked forward to being seniors. The dance no senior could forget—the "Junior-Senior" tea dance and prom. So another season of dances.

Because of the war the boys on the committee worked under many difficulties and much credit should be given to them for their hard work and ceaseless efforts.

OUR TEAM

When the Wildcats opened their 1941 season, the coaches found that out of last year's eleven they only had three regulars left with which to face one of the toughest schedules ever undertaken. As the season got under way two of our potential "All Staters", Paul Berg and versatile Dave Coates, were crippled. This handicapped our team still more. Our team was still a Championship team, it beat Tech High School with a smashing score of 45-0, giving them the title of City Champions.

IN ACTION

Next year the outlook will be much brighter, the green boys of this year's team will be the veterans, also the Wildcats will be back in the State Conference again. So more power to next year's team, may they be again as in the past, North Carolina's best, State Champs.

BASKETBALL TEAM

CAPTAIN BILL SIMONS

COACH JIM BOYLSTON

Before the season started, basketball prospects for 1942 were considered bright. But bad luck struck the Streaks before the season began. Dave Coates, star forward, broke his leg playing football. Johnny Muse, 1941 high scorer, transferred to prep school, and Charlie Porter, ace center, was declared ineligible on a technicality. With only one starter, George Sherrill, left, the team had to be completely rebuilt.

The inexperienced combination started slowly, but gained momentum as the season wore on. Paced by Captain Bill Simons and George Sherrill, the Streaks turned in wins over High Point, Asheville, Asheville School for Boys, Winston-Salem, and Salisbury. For the third consecutive time since the city Series was inaugurated, the Streaks swept the city title in two straight games, this time smashing Tech High. Letters were awarded to Captain Simons, George Sherrill, Ken McEntire, Hal Owens, Bill Palmer, Bud Foreman, Ralph Kelly, Joe Kumpe, and Manager George Payne.

Fifth row: Steve Fellos, Bill Rutledge, Bernard Fitzgerald, Lloyd Hovis, Sid Armstrong.

BASEBALL TEAM

Central's baseball season opens this year with four letter men returning: Captain Ken McIntyre, Jack Helms, Paul Brooks, and Bill Taylor; also, some of last year's squad including Ralph Kelly, Hal Owens, Joe Kumpe, Don Young, and Henry Engle. Praise should be given to our baseball team which in five years of scholastic competition has lost only an equal number of games, a record for any school to be proud of. This year's probable lineup will be John Tiddy at first, Nevin Rice at second, Glenn Hopkins at shortstop, and Jack Helms at third. Prospects for the outfield are: Henry Lemmons, Don Young, Hal Owens, Harvey McGinn, Hugh White, and Sid Johnson. Catching for the team will be Captain Ken McEntire. Splitting duties on the mound will be Paul Brooks and Bill Taylor, along with rookies such as Norman Deal, Henry Engle, and Lefty Stapleton. The team will be managed by Bill Strange.

First row: Glenn Hopkins, Nevin Rice, Joe Kumpe, Captain Ken McEntire.

Second row: Paul Brooks, Bill Taylor, Don Young, Jack Helms, Hal Owens.

Third row: Harry Lemmons, Coach Boyleston, Henry Engle.

BOXING

COACH VINCE BRADFORD
CAPTAIN NEVIN RICE

If credit is to be given where credit is due, then let's give plenty of it to our fine Boxing Team. Boxing has been Central's bright light in its athletic program for several years. Under the expert direction of Coach Vince Bradford our team has not been beaten in five years, and has won 37 straight matches. They are the unofficial State, Dixie, and Southern Conference Champs, a record for any school to be proud of and we are. Praises are to be given to Captain Nevin Rice and his teammates, who with fighting hearts and strong bodies, brought us another successful, undefeated season this year. Captain Rice, Ray Kissiah, and Phil DeBerry are seniors who have put on the gloves for the last time for Central. Graduation will take these boys, but in the hearts of many fight fans they will be often missed but never forgotten. Before we finish this column we want to wish next year's team all the luck in the world, may Central continue to be honored with such a fine team as we had this year.

IN PAIRS

HISTORY OF THE SENIOR CLASS

On a cool September day in 1939, "Nellie" Freeman opened wide the enormous doors of Central High School to the eager, wide-eyed sophomore class. As this class comes now to graduation, one finds that same eagerness that prevailed then and that has carried this Senior Class of 1942 through its three years of golden opportunities at Central.

That same September brought in not only a new class of students but also a new coach, Vince Bradford. Later on in that month Central had the first opportunity to see the Wildcats, under Bradford and Boylston, get off to a flying start by tacking a 51 to 0 defeat on to Fayetteville. The star of that football game was a sophomore, David Coates. Many have been the Friday evenings that we have seen our teams roll on to victory.

For our officers we chose L. A. Waggoner, President; Ernest Hunter, Vice-President; Virginia Livie, Secretary; and Jimmie Alexander, Treasurer. As a fall project the music department presented Central's first opera, "Bohemian Girl." The dramatics department offered two highly delightful plays in "The Bishop Misbehaves" and "Taming of the Shrew."

During the second semester Joe Kumpe served as President; Dorothy Thigpen, Vice-President; Virginia Livie, Secretary; and Marion Hipp, Treasurer. The band, composed almost entirely of sophomores, and the orchestra attended the National Music Contest at West Palm Beach, Florida. Besides having a delightful trip, they returned home with first ratings. It was in this contest that the band made a 99.9% rating on marching, the highest ever attained by any band.

When school reopened in September, 1940, we at last felt the thrill of looking down on "those tiny sophomores" who seemed to be knee-high to a duck. The first semester found Joe Kumpe, President; Marion Hipp, Vice-President; Estelle Darrow, Secretary; and Jimmie Alexander, Treasurer. Ted Pappas represented the class on the Student Council and served as Secretary.

For the second semester of our Junior year we chose Wayman Leftwich, President; Joe Kumpe, Vice-President; Jack McCracken, Secretary; and Bill Carpenter, Treasurer. This semester saw Blanche Lampke take her place as Secretary of the Student Council and thus keep a junior in that office.

Our Junior year remembrances will long linger with us. In athletics Central enjoyed one of the most successful years in its history. The football, basketball, track, and baseball teams boasted enviable records while the tennis and boxing teams continued their long string of successive victories that they had gathered through the past years. The music department was represented at the National Contest by the choir, orchestra, and band. All of these returned with first ratings. For the first time in several years Central returned to debating and produced a team that walked off with high honors. A history of our Junior year would not be complete without making note of our many holidays caused by the influenza epidemic which forced us to remain at our studies until the hot sun of June boiled down on us.

The Junior marshals, with Jimmie Alexander as chief, ushered out the Senior Class of '41, and in stepped the Senior Class of '42.

The first semester Senior Class President was Joe Kumpe, thus making him our president at least one time yearly during our stay at Central. Under him Bill Carpenter served as Vice-President; Hoyle Wilson, Secretary; and Marion Hipp, Treasurer. The heads of our school publications were SNIPS AND CUTS, Bill de Roxlo, Editor; Ernest Hunter, Business Manager; Rambler, Earl Heafner, Editor; Margaret Ann Costner, Business Manager; and Lace and Pig Iron, Catherine Smart, Editor; Irene Gilbert, Business Manager. The following Seniors served as officers of the Honor Society: L. A. Waggoner, President; Jane Kennedy, Vice-President; Betty Jean Bostian, Secretary; and E. H. Nease, Jr., Treasurer.

Early in the fall of 1941 we were privileged to play host to the annual meeting of the North Carolina State Student Council Congress. The dramatics department presented "Stage Door" and "Seventeen," two thrilling plays. The band got its reward for its hard work in the form of an invitation to play at the National Music Educators Convention in Milwaukee. This selection was made over some 35,000 other bands in the United States. The boxing team, continuing its string of successive victories, was the brightest light among our athletic teams.

The second semester class officers were: Heywood Weeks, President; Margaret Ann Costner, Vice-President; Estelle Darrow, Secretary; and Nevin Rice, Treasurer. Honor Society officers were: Ernest Hunter, President; Dorothy Thigpen, Vice-President; Betty Jean Bostian, Secretary; and E. H. Nease, Jr., Treasurer.

The officers for Class Day were Marion Hipp, Prophet; Heywood Weeks, Lawyer; Marion Rousseau, Artist; Steve Pappas, Poet; Ted Pappas, Song Writer; and E. H. Nease, Jr., Historian. Thus we find that our stay at Central has ended. Our three years here served as stepping stones to greater and better things. In future years as we look back at these stepping stones, we will always give them the honor and credit that is due. We are proud of Central! Long may her standards of Education and Character Building be upheld!

E. H. NEASE, JR., Historian

So This Is Commencement

Everyone has a job this year . . . the job of helping win the war, wherever we are and whatever our occupation.

Here's one worthwhile tip for future reference: The few pennies a day you spend for electric service is the best investment you can make to simplify daily tasks and release you for other activities.

CLASS POEM

As we recall our joyous years,
The things that seemed so small—
The flag that hangs in every room,
The clock upon the wall—

Appear no longer commonplace
But call to us and say,
"You'll understand the things we meant
When you have gone away."

Central, we'll keep your honor fair,
In many a strange alarm.
Your standards high will bode them ill
Who think to do us harm.

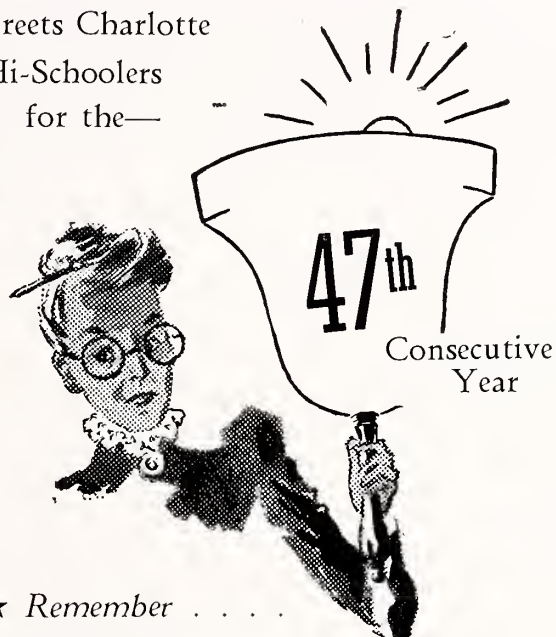

For some shall sail on the wings of the air,
And some beneath the sea;
And some shall tend the soldiers' wounds
In our fight for liberty.

God, grant us strength to win the fight
Against the treacherous foe;
And, if we die, oh, make our land
The brighter for our woe.

CLASS PROPHECY

Mr. Arthur Gullede,
Box No. 307,

Morganton, N. C.

May 31, 1950.

Dear Arthur,

When I heard about your coming home from the Far East where you became quite famous for your daring exploits while looking for stories about the idiosyncrasies of the "Olivius Valstead" species of the river rat family, I thought that you might like to have something to take your mind off your work. Do you remember how you liked to prophesy the destiny of your classmates? I've compiled a few brief records of some of our former classmates and I thought you might like to see how your prophecies compare with my compilations.

The first persons whom I'll tell you about are Crawford Ferguson and Bill Simons. "Fergie" and Bill operate the Ferguson-Simons Playmate Co. The boys specialize in taking care of shy and timid children. Some of our best known civic leaders send their children there. Among the customers of Ferguson and Simons are Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Simmons, who send little Betty Haughton Simmons to the institution; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wheeler (you ought to see little Jane, she's just like her mother); and Mr. Ralph A. Kelly. As you probably know, Ralph's wife, Estelle, is now singing at the Metropolitan Opera House and Ralph has to take care of little Alexander.

Some of our former glamour girls, Lillian Daugherty, Virginia Livie, Blanche Lampke, Martha Cherry, and Ruth Hayes, have now taken up the fine art of fishing. The girls tell me that they are fishing for a fish called a sucker; I haven't the slightest idea what kind of fish that is.

In the business world, quite a few of our classmates have soared to great heights. A most prosperous business is Hoyle Wilson's Match-Making Institution. Hoyle tells me that his business is on a steady increase because the spring weather has been exceptionally fine this year. While I was in Hoyle's office the other day, I was very much surprised to see who some of his clients were. There were Ann Bagwell, Beverly Parker, Deanie Shaw, and B. D. Rogers. I always thought these people would have the least trouble of all trying to find mates, because they always had some kind of love affair while they were in school.

One of the most prosperous businesses in town is the firm of Alexander, Weeks, Collins, Waggoner, and Adams, Attorneys-at-Law. Their slogan is "We'll straighten out all arguments and put you on the good side of any official." They belong to the National A. K. A. whose president is Wallace Krueger.

Another thriving concern is the Blalock, Rice, Gascoigne, Benton and Martin, Dog and Cat Farm. This farm is well-known throughout the country for its remarkable results in training dogs to run errands for their masters. At this dog and cat farm these kind-hearted boys provide kennels for old, stray dogs and homeless cats.

Some of the girls have also entered the business world. Shirley Sideman is now head of the stenographic department in Frances Brownlee's new clothing store on East Trade Street. In Frances's store there are quite a few of our former classmates employed. In the shoe department, which Kenneth Coe is head of, there are Jimmy Fowler, Roger Williams, and Jack Beall. Bobbie Jennings and Ann Wheeler have charge of the lingerie department and Mary Lib Noles is salesman. Frances furnishes most of the Central High School students with the latest fashions from Matthews and Mt. Holly.

Ted Pappas and his orchestra have steadily climbed up the ladder of success. They have just finished a twelve-week engagement at the Hotel Franklin-Green. Sidney "Mac" Johnson and Carl Furr, managers of the hotel, said that the attraction of Maestro Pappas' orchestra has brought more business to their hotel since the maneuvers back in '41.

There are numbers of our former classmates now in the professional world. Joe Kumpe is professor of the heart anatomy department out at Queens and director at Duke University. Dr. Steve Pappas, Ph.D., S. O. S., has turned into quite a famous research chemist. Dr. Pappas is famous for his brewing and experimenting on different types of headache remedies. While I'm talking about the professional world, I want to remind you to stop at the Madison Square Garden the next time you're in New York and hear the eminent Dr. Bernard Fitzgerald and the masterful choir-director, Raymond Spears Kissiah, lead one of their old-fashioned revival programs.

As you know, many of our classmates were drafted into the army. Well, there are many of our classmates still following that line of work. Sergeant Jim Allison and Corporal Ed Smith are down at Ft. Benning instructing young recruits in the finer arts of K. P. duty. Their commanding officer, hard-boiled Lt. Leftwich, says that they are doing an excellent job and he is going to recommend them for promotion. Capt. Bob Graham is now commander of a squadron of bombers somewhere in Japan. While I'm talking about the army, I might as well tell you about Nancy Brame. Nancy, as you know, used to write for the newspaper, but this became a little dull for her so she organized a group of girls to go around to the different army camps to raise the soldiers' morale. Some of the stars of her organization are Betty Graham, who does a song and dance number; the Rousseau twins, better known as the Twin-Dynamos of Rhythm, and the star of the show, Caroline Eddy and her all-girl orchestra. Nancy's organization has received a tremendous ovation wherever they have been and she has decided to go on Broadway as soon as the armies of occupation have returned home.

I suppose that the most famous of our former classmates is George Payne. Mr. Payne gained most of his fame down in the jungles of Lower Sugaw Creek, where he fearlessly tracked down a rare species of butterfly that flies backwards. Mr. Payne is also noted for his great collection of rare insects and plants of the microscopic world.

Your old friend, Patsy Lee Mills—better known as Daisy June Lamour, is now in Hollywood making pictures for Stupendous Production, Inc. One of her latest releases is entitled "The Lost Lover," which co-stars the great romantic actor, Ed Cansler.

In the political field, there are numbers of our former classmates. There is one very strong party out in the Water-tank district which is expected to take all seats on the school board. This party is headed by Bob Elliot who has as his running mates John Milton Ray, "Buzz" Fleming, and "Boss" Crumley. Miss Dorathy Thigpen and Miss Helen Burwell, co-chairmen of the Ladies Aid Society, have promised to support Elliot's party to the last ditch.

There is one more person whom I'd like to tell you about. That person is Ken McIntyre. Ken has just been promoted to chief-barker in Madame Elinor Bell's Dog Show. I know you join me in wishing Ken all the success in the world.

In closing I want to congratulate you on getting a softer padding for your compartment and I hope this extra comfort will enable you to write a much more interesting book about the rat family.

With luck to your future success,
MARION HIPPI, Prophet, Class of 1942

YOU'VE looked forward to the day when you could proudly say, "Ours is a Baldwin Piano." You've promised yourself that "some day" you would have this inspired and inspiring instrument. And now, isn't it time to turn that cherished dream into a treasured reality? Have your Baldwin. Let it bring its richness and beauty into your home and your life. Today, the Baldwin is easier to possess than ever before.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of nineteen hundred and forty-two, being of as sound mind as we are every likely to be and being in complete and perfect ownership give, bequeath, and devise to our underclass proteges, of this, CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL, all our rights and privileges of every kind and nature, whether real, personal, or mixed, appointing them without bond as of this Last Will and Testament and giving them authority thereof. We do hereby make the following dispensation of our possessions.

ARTICLE I—TO THE FACULTY

ITEM ONE—To Dr. Garinger, we voice a sincere tribute for his untiring patience and understanding sympathy toward us and our problems.

ITEM TWO—To Miss Fraser, we express our heartiest thanks for her unflagging interest in student activities.

ITEM THREE—To Miss Markham, we wish to extend our soul sympathy and hope that she will not be downcast further by lack of tires to convey her to and from Durham.

ITEM FOUR—To Miss Akers, we express gratitude for her careful guidance over our annual, THE SNIPS AND CUTS.

ITEM FIVE—To our coaches, Bradford and Boylston, we express our true thanks for the outstanding teams that we have had during our stay at Central.

ITEM SIX—To Miss Miller, we joyfully leave our grades and hope that she will keep them forever hidden in the dark recesses of the office files.

ITEM SEVEN—To Miss Bertha, whom all of us love, we leave room for another senior class, hoping that it will not prove as provoking as we were.

ITEM EIGHT—To Miss Bunch, our senior class adviser, we express our sincere appreciation for her advice and guidance in our many activities during this, our senior year.

ARTICLE II—TO THE JUNIOR CLASS

ITEM ONE—We, the greatest, most supreme class, of the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-two leave and bequeath to you our love of Central High School with the hope that you will do your part to make it an even greater high school.

ITEM TWO—We also to you all leave our books and hope that you use them a little more than we have.

ITEM THREE—To you we reluctantly yield our senior dignity, if you can find it—we can't—and the right to the esteemed title "Ye Ole Seniors."

ITEM FOUR—We leave you any of our class who have been victims of that dreadful disease, "Too-many-F's."

ITEM FIVE—We leave you the responsibility of preserving and increasing that vanishing phenomenon, Central's school spirit, to such an extent that the activities of the student body will be the envy of every high school in the country.

ARTICLE III—TO VARIOUS INDIVIDUALS

ITEM ONE—I, Charles Patterson, grudgingly relinquish my "gift of gab" to Wallace Orr, with the painful realization that he can never attain the heights which I have reached in the art of bull-shooting.

ITEM TWO—I, Jane Isenhour, leave my rapid-fire temper to anyone who wants it.

ITEM THREE—I, Crawford Ferguson, leave my ability to amuse the public to Jerry Cook, hoping that he can equal my record of never giving out of it.

ITEM FOUR—I, Betty Ward, leave my big brown eyes to Marylee Hicks.

ITEM FIVE—I, Marion Hipp, leave to Tom Good my peace of mind and freedom of speech.

ITEM SIX—I, Frances Brownlee, leave my cute clothes to Monzell Gray.

ITEM SEVEN—I, Buck Blalock, leave.

ITEM EIGHT—I, Sara Bobbitt, leave my attractive smile and ability to lead to Mary Christenson.

ITEM NINE—I, Wayman Leftwich, leave my sympathy and the dance committee to whoever will have the job.

ITEM TEN—I, Elsie Blackburn, leave to "Coach" Ansley my beauty and ability to catch the beaus.

ITEM ELEVEN—I, Jimmy Alexander, leave my industry and business ability to Leslie Heath.

ITEM TWELVE—We, Camille Newman, Caroline Eddy, Jean Howie, and Jane Kennedy, do will our title "Miss Markham's Pets" to any cute juniors who will win her favor.

ITEM THIRTEEN—I, David Coates, leave my touchdown ability and "way with the women" to Ted Decker.

ITEM FOURTEEN—I, Frankie Stephenson, will my short stature to Lib Chapman. (No junior is so short.)

ITEM FIFTEEN—I, Betty Dixon, will to Mademoiselle Nancy Stitt my knowledge of French.

ITEM SIXTEEN—I, Bobby Graham, take my pipe with me.

ITEM SEVENTEEN—I, Mary Jane Long, do hereby will my blushes to anyone who has a red-haired boy friend.

ITEM EIGHTEEN—I, Bill de Roxlo, leave with my SNIPS AND CUTS and a bad headache resulting from my struggles with the aforementioned volume.

ITEM NINETEEN—I, Ernest Hunter, do hereby will my dignity and poise to those members of the rising senior class who need it, but fear that it will have to be rationed to go around.

ITEM TWENTY—I, L. A. Waggoner, leave my man-about-town air to Tommy "Super" Stroupe.

ITEM TWENTY-ONE—I, Jean Noble, will my change of hair-do to any junior who has the patience to play with it.

ITEM TWENTY-TWO—I, J. T. Hunter, leave the Hi-Y Club hoping that my loss will not be felt too severely and that it will remain in as good hands as it has in the past.

ITEM TWENTY-THREE—I, Keg Wheeler, leave my physique to Ben Ivey.

ITEM TWENTY-FOUR—I, Bill Simmons, do hereby will and bequeath the basketball team to next year's captain, and hope that he will have another good team.

ITEM TWENTY-FIVE—I, "Jeep" Sease, leave Lib Chapman.

ITEM TWENTY-SIX—I, Ted Pappas, leave my ability to lead a band to Kemp Dunaway.

ITEM TWENTY-SEVEN—I, Estelle Darrow, take Ralph with me.

ITEM TWENTY-EIGHT—I, Nevin Rice, wishing to keep my fistic ability in the family, leave it to "Butch" Flowe.

ITEM TWENTY-NINE—I, Joe Kumpe, leave my popularity to Bill Scruggs.

ITEM THIRTY—I, Hoyle Wilson, do hereby leave a copy of my prayers for rain to the up-and-coming operations committee.

ITEM THIRTY-ONE—I, Jane Kennedy, leave many "Good Sports" behind.

ITEM THIRTY-TWO—I, John Collins, leave my singing to the next best one.

ITEM THIRTY-THREE—In conclusion, we, the Class of Forty-two leave!!
